

The Environmental Assessment (EA) for the I-65/I-70 North Split Interchange Reconstruction in downtown Indianapolis is now available for public review and comment. INDOT is hosting two sessions – one virtual presentation and one in-person public hearing – to present the EA.

VIRTUAL PRESENTATION – JULY 30

The virtual presentation will be Thursday, July 30, at 5 p.m. using the WebEx conferencing tool. During the WebEx session, attendees can see and hear a formal presentation from the North Split Project Team, and ask questions using the Chat feature or info@northsplit.com. The meeting will be broadcast on Indianapolis Government Access Channel 16.

PUBLIC HEARING – AUGUST 3

The traditional, in-person public hearing will be Monday, August 3, at 4 p.m. at the Ivy Tech Community College Culinary and Conference Center at 2820 N. Meridian St., Indianapolis, IN 46208. Doors open at 4 p.m. The formal presentations begin at 4:30 p.m. and 6 p.m.

Public hearing attendees are required to wear masks per local ordinance and practice social distancing. Attendees who do not have a mask will be provided one, and hand sanitation stations will be available.

The audience for the formal presentation will be limited to 66 on a first-come, first-served basis. The public may provide testimony immediately following the presentations.

An electronic version of the EA and the list of locations where residents can review a printed copy are available at www.northsplit.com/EA.
